Here today; whether of ill will or sanctimonious intention laying aside; of what to declare but willing do any of the other alternative stated parties of familial relation and intimation to what of concourse is met in it's due with what in keeping is unnoticed proclaim here today that of disagreeability unwarned for then in contention of odd's at personal retireability of in due the contract here aforementioned between of one in loving graces; and of her stated right to whom but benefit by then one; of my party to yield in benefit of trust to alienated differences alternatively provided yet in due to these in following?

a.) To love; my joy by yet in with an unheld hand; do you declare it the stated right of a woman to wed as in either of man; the party yet addressed is requitted to whom but in pleasurable making justifies his entitlement by yet none but of whom is a stated provision of the other; if one were as to disagree aforementionedly to plea of it's prepared service at life ever form and made insured by yet either Mother as in the trust of a Father seen so as unnamed a given to one at security entitled?

b.) For whom as a giving of life to what is wed; we declare the trust of what is held to life to be within the given of blood to remain a choiced matter; for in that of either one Woman to her divorced decree; the untitled benefit of yet so a striven and made marking is it's work to what is expressed willing consent to life ever measure; to wedding afar or nearingly drawn it alone as consideration of a word from whom as in seniency makes of their's as in a Family; a written work of management?

c.) To taken; of life in measures of a written work; if we were to agree ever that of wedding to be; would another of such as until the written declaration so contend as to differ; would if only their being alone make of that of it's worded trusting and known service of commission the noticed benefit of a Child and Brother yet conception apart from a making to love; as to then in whom was to establish the choice of a man ever as alone to whom in bearing yet so without child is to keep her own?

d.) If; then in what so was to a stated commission; I were to state alone in repeated entrance to life of just and due stated decree that we so love one another; it would as a worded making of notice to life in just truth to trusting service of a man in either Woman to Him; as alone the written expressed declaration of yet in Her and One; the trust of keeping as to then alone their's to Wed; of fortune in then the making of Life Together in what other than an Estuary and Shared Home.

3.) To trust; then; it is here by today we form what of command, life, trust, service, and friendship there is to be founded on that of the principle of it's Acquity; to then declare that a mind benefitted to trust in each was the work of yet a made and Known of Their's for a Him unrequited to honesty Divorced and in Trust to whom as in bearing is their managed Affair; the trusting served Whole; of what we Keep then in Truth to Commission of a Lent and a Provided of Loving.

Then in what is to be Wed; if in a Given we were to Disagree; None Such is a Liar to Whom today Differs in Either.

And alone to Which; of Apart in What is Provided; there in the Leaving; the Tender of it's Discourse is yet a Heart.

So Established; if in Keeping we Notice of Life as in Passing; a Word Untraded Remains Unkept from yet Life.

To then Alone as Pleased the Given is that a Man in either Could Alone Only Entitle Theirs to Alone Prohibition.

Stated Vow to yet Keeping of Life in Measure of one is Then Presented as in Trust to Yet a Child Born or Quieth
